THE RACES.

FIRST DAY. The weather, which for two days before the Races had been threatening, cloured up-yesterday, and was genial and bright. It was perhaps a trifle tee sunny for the convenience of the riders, and cabbage leaves, obtained from the winners at the recent Flower Show. came into presty general requisition. The attendance at the Grand Stand was very good, and there were a larger number of ladies than usual on the first day, and we doubt not that to-day, if the weather continue as propitious, there will be a still larger number. Looked at from a sporting point of view, may be fairly stated that the meeting was one of the best which we have had for sometime in Hongkong. Most of the events were closely contested, and there was a sufficient amount of uncertainty about them to give

There was a very good, attendance at the various stands on the course, in addition to that at the Grand Stand; and all who were present seemed thoroughly to enjoy the day's lowed closely by Zero and Sir Gulahad. On valves and connections for the working of both were called into requisition.
